

ARFF Training Concepts, in conjunction with Executive Force Protection of Cambridge, Massachusetts are providing Career Development and Counseling Services. Primary audiences are Military Veterans and Certified First Responders.

For additional information Please Contact:

Executive Force Protection Career Assessment Services.

Executive Force Protection is currently offering career development and counselling.

Executive Force Protection Boston based team of career counselling and transition professional serve individuals seeking employment as well as employers looking for talent. Our mission at EFP career development, is to guide individuals and prepare them for the Global Workforce. We understand When you're searching for the right job or the right career advice, there can be significant uncertainty in identifying how to find a solid career path. We provide a range of career assessment, counselling and transition services. Our professional staff will create a job search strategy that is right for you. We provide confidential individual discussions, career assessment tools, job research and job search coaching to help you identify and pursue those interests. For additional information contact us at career@executiveforceprotection.com or call 1-866-858-5706.